Chairman's Newsletter
No. 25. (3rd year)
7th European Conference, Dublin,
May 1st. - 3rd. 1953.

On the steps of the Mansion House, Dublin,
following Civic Reception by the Lord Mayor to Conference Delegates.

Dear friends,

MAY, 1953.

PERSONAL IMPRESSIONS.

I was truly pleased with the arrangements made by Executive Members of the Dublin Maccabi Association, thanks to whom the Conference was such an outstanding and memorable occasion. The charm and hospitality of young men such as Hubert Wine and Harold Davis, and of their numerous friends, made us feel at home the minute we set foot on the Dublin Airport. In the Customs House, the noticeboard carried messages for Conference Delegates from overseas, containing guidance and advice as to their movements. Upon our arrival at the hotel, we were handed sealed letters of welcome, together with an invitation to attend the Oneg Shabbath held the same evening. When reporting at the Secretariat, smiling eyes - so very Irish - met us there, and a cordial sound of "Shalom" resounded on all sides. Each delegate was handed
