CARNIVAL MANAGER'S MESSAGE

This year's Australian Maccabi Sports Carnival is the 53rd such gathering since that historic cricket match in the 1920s, between teams from Sydney and Melbourne. Despite the growth in numbers of sports and competitors, the emphasis remains on Jewish sportspersons getting together for hard-fought contests whilst gaining and maintaining friendships. That these annual games are an important part of both the Australian and Maccabi scenes is best evidenced by the messages in this Programme - from our Prime Minister who was Melbourne's last Carnival Patron, the Premier of Victoria and the Israeli Ambassador who is our current Carnival Patron.

In most cordially welcoming all teams to this Melbourne Carnival, I reserve special mention for the first fully-representative team from New Zealand - a contingent larger than several of our own State teams. In addition, another warmer-than-usual welcome to those who have journeyed here from overseas to compete in the World Maccabi Ten Pin Bowling Championships. To them and all other competitors, local and visiting, may you thoroughly enjoy this Carnival fortnight and achieve every success which you may deserve.

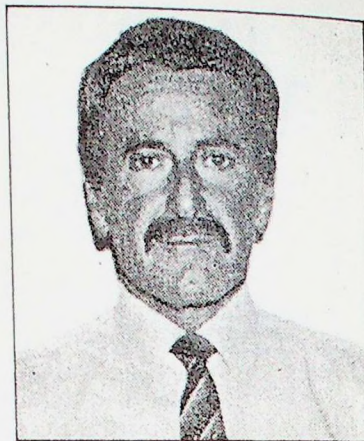

For most connected with this Carnival, this is only the beginning. For my Carnival Organising Committee it is the beginning of the end of a project which started in unofficial vein some 2½ years ago when the booking of certain key venues commenced. Having decided then to only obtain top sporting and social venues early booking was necessary and during the next two weeks you will enjoy the fruits of my Committee's labours. I most sincerely thank my hard-working Committee for their time and energy and the manner in which they have ensured that everything was in readiness for a truly fabulous fortnight. They have done their work well, the rest is now up to you team members to maintain the spirit in which they have worked.

In arranging only the best available venues, we were naturally aware that this would probably be the costliest Carnival ever staged in Australia. This concept could not possibly have come to fruition without the generous support of Melbourne's Jewish community. On behalf of my Committee, of Ajax Maccabi and all those who will enjoy this Carnival sincerest thanks to them as, once again, they have been great. In thanking the sponsors, advertisers, etc., I include those who have opened their homes to provide billets for those from overseas and interstate - adding hospitality to their generosity.

In thinking of all those who must be thanked for their support I find there are many. To list them individually would consume too many pages, but there is one who again must be singled out for extra special mention. I refer to an old cricketing mate, Sol Landsberg from Paterson Press-Beaver Group Pty. Ltd. His advice and generosity over the past twelve and more months saved my Committee many headaches and if we could appoint a "Patron Saint" it would be Sol. Many thanks indeed!

The packed programme of sporting and social events will certainly keep both participants and supporters busy. There is no point dwelling on that as perusal of the scheduled days will provide a better picture than I could portray. However, every Carnival has nights when a sporting function ends relatively early and this too has been catered for. A nightly "supper club" disco has been arranged at The President Melbourne to provide for those odd night hours and to serve as a central gathering place. The same venue will house the physiotherapy clinic, thanks to Ross Smith, and the Carnival Office. Further, all meetings will be held there. Predictably, The President Melbourne will be the hub around which this Carnival will revolve.

My last thank you is to the Team Managers, Sport Liaison Officers, Sectional Managers and Ajax Maccabi clubs. In many ways these are the unsung heroes, whose work frequently goes unnoticed but is essential to the success of a Carnival. I trust they have found their work rewarding and now enjoy their results.

To all team members, my advice is to give everything you have to your sport over the Carnival fortnight and spend your off-field hours socialising in the company of your established and new-found mates - either at functions or watching other sports. The bonds you develop and cement during the Carnival will serve you in good stead for the rest of your lives. You will also then reap the maximum benefit, success and fun out of what will be a great Carnival.

Good luck to you all and enjoy.

Herb Swedosh
Carnival Manager

MESSAGE FROM THE PRIME MINISTER

The 53rd Australian Maccabi Sports Carnival will be a special highlight on the sporting scene in Melbourne over the period December 1985 to January 1986.

In extending a warm welcome to all who are converging on Melbourne for this important occasion, I share the delight of Ajax-Maccabi that among the some 650 participants will be many from overseas including, for the first time, a team officially representing New Zealand Maccabi.

The traditional excitement and spectacle of the Maccabi Sports Carnivals will be enhanced in this year's event by the inclusion of such sports as Indoor Soccer and Indoor Cricket. In addition the Carnival will also feature the inaugural World Maccabi Ten Pin Bowling Championships, attracting participants from Europe, USA, New Zealand and from all over Australia.

With so entertaining and varied a programme, the organisers and their supporters seem assured of a most successful Carnival. I am also confident that all competitors and spectators will enjoy Melbourne's warm hospitality and splendid facilities along with what should be a memorable sporting experience. My best wishes to you all.

R.J.L. Hawke
Prime Minister

MESSAGE FROM THE PREMIER

Victorians are sports loving people with a number of sporting competitions being held each year.

One of the most famous is the Australian Maccabi Sports Carnival held from Christmas Day in one of Australia's mainland capital cities.

This year Melbourne is host city for this major competition, now in its 53rd year.

Some 650 Jewish sportspeople from all over Australia will be competing in 25 different events and participants will also be coming from Europe, New Zealand, and the USA to play in the World Maccabi Ten Pin Bowling Competition.

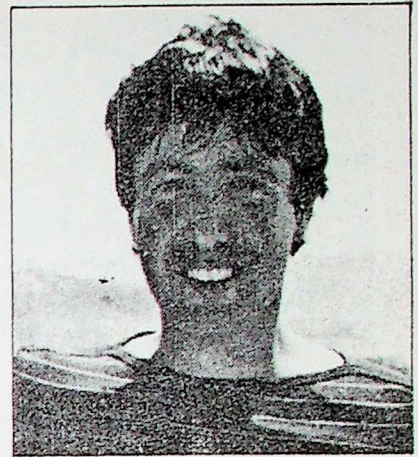

Since the Carnival began in the 1920s with a cricket match between a team from Sydney and Melbourne, the games have grown in size and scope and now include a social calendar.

I am very pleased that Victoria is the host this year and wish all the competitors good luck and a happy time during their stay in Melbourne.

I congratulate the organisers of the Maccabi Carnival and wish the games every success.

John Cain
Premier

MESSAGE FROM THE AMF PRESIDENT

On behalf of the Executive of the Australian Maccabi Federation I welcome all participants to the 53rd Australian Maccabi Sports Carnival. I also have great pleasure in welcoming those competitors from overseas and within Australia who will be competing in the inaugural World Maccabi Ten Pin Bowling Championships to be held in Melbourne in conjunction with the Carnival. These Championships will swell the number of participants in Carnival and related activities to a record level of over 600 participants.

The Australian Maccabi Federation congratulates Ajax Maccabi for hosting and organising what promises to be a magnificent sporting occasion for the Australian Maccabi Movement. Mr. Herb Swedosh, Carnival Manager, and his diligent committee are to be congratulated for organising a well-balanced and complete programme of events. The scheduling of a large number of sporting and social events will set a high standard for future carnival committees throughout Australia.

The spirit and ideals of Maccabi sports carnivals are to promote understanding, friendship and sportsmanship among the Jewish sportsmen and sportswomen of Australia. The Carnivals today have become an integral part of Jewish communal life. It is important for all participants to remember that it is the participation that is important, not the winning. In addition, every participant should be aware that Maccabi means much more than just sport. Our movement is committed to the ideals of Judaism and we have strong links with Jewish youth in Israel and elsewhere in the world as our participation in the Maccabiah Games in Israel every four years and other international Maccabi competitions evidences.

To all participants, supporters and the Melbourne Jewish Community, I wish you all a happy and enjoyable Carnival, one that you will remember with pleasure for many years.

David Grace
AMF President

MESSAGE FROM THE AMBASSADOR OF ISRAEL

As Honorary Patron of the 53rd Australian Maccabi Sports Carnival, it gives me great pleasure to extend to you my very best wishes for the success of the Carnival and its various events. I have been following with interest your preparations and there is no doubt in my mind that we can expect an impressive show.

The advancement of physical training for the promotion of athletic fitness is by definition a worthy goal but it does not happen in a vacuum. It takes place in a world replete with danger. A society which is founded on justice and freedom cannot enjoy the liberty of overlooking certain dangers. As a group and as individuals, all members of the free society have to be strong and alert - capable to face the challenges of our times. This applies to the general society - the more so the Jewish community. Maccabi Australia will continue to be faithful to its mission of helping to develop a healthy soul in a healthy body and thus contribute to a healthy community.

Yishar Ko'khaheh!

Yissakhar Ben-Yaacov
Carnival Patron

MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT OF AJAX MACCABI

Welcome to Melbourne. It is very exciting for me in my first year as President to have a Carnival here in Melbourne. I am confident that this year's Carnival will be one that is long remembered by those who participate in it; particularly in view of Organising Committee's preparation and hard work.

No doubt following on from Maccabi it might be said that Carnival could be seen as something of a let down but I know the Organising Committee has arranged functions, venues and entertainment that will result in a most memorable Carnival.

On behalf of my Executive may I wish each participant a successful and rewarding Carnival may you gain from your participation all that you desire, hopefully rekindling old friendships and making many new ones.

Tom F. Danos
President, Ajax Maccabi

NEW SOUTH WALES TEAM MANAGER'S MESSAGE

On behalf of the New South Wales Team Management, the Team and New South Wales Maccabi, I wish to offer our congratulations to Herb Swedosh and the Organising Committee on the planning that has gone into the staging of the 53rd Australian Maccabi Sports Carnival.

Although this is my first time as Team Manager, I have been an assistant on a number of occasions, and I will be doing my utmost to emulate the deeds of my predecessors.

I have been to four previous Melbourne Carnivals, and have always found the hospitality first class, and I am sure this Carnival will be no exception.

My management team Drazel, Frank and Darren, join me in wishing all competitors the best of luck in their respective sports and may you all have an enjoyable Carnival and compete in the true Maccabi spirit of friendly competition.

WEST AUSTRALIA TEAM MANAGER'S MESSAGE

The most important event on the Australian Maccabi calendar is the annual Carnival. Each year these fantastic games provide an opportunity for many of our Jewish youth to meet in friendly rivalry on the sporting arena, maintaining past friendships and making new ones. These are the true hallmarks of these interstate contests and WA is indeed proud to be involved once again.

AJAX Maccabi has a reputation for organising an outstanding Carnival, and with Herb Swedosh heading the team of committed Maccabi people, we are certain that this year will be no exception. We are deeply appreciative of the tremendous effort that the Carnival Committee has made in arranging what should be a Carnival to remember.

Enthusiasm in Perth following our successful Carnival last year has been maintained as evidenced by the large contingent who have decided to travel to Melbourne. I feel certain that we will not only perform well in the sports, winning our customary share of the medals, but also enjoy the many social functions. W.A. has always had a policy of participation in sport and this will be demonstrated in the "sportsmanship" style in which we compete.

With our large contingent, we will once again be imposing on the hospitality of the Melbourne Jewish community. To all of you who opened your homes and welcomed us from the sunny West, may I express sincerest thanks.

On behalf of all members of WA Maccabi and our energetic team members, I extend warmest greetings to all and best wishes to all competitors.

VICTORIA TEAM MANAGER'S MESSAGE

It gives me great pleasure, on behalf of Ajax Maccabi, to extend a most sincere welcome to both competitors and team officials from interstate and overseas who are visiting Melbourne for the 53rd Carnival.

I have had the good fortune to be involved, in various capacities, at previous Carnivals, but this is the first time I have been Team Manager. I am therefore extremely proud to be leading our team at a Carnival in our own state.

As with all previous Carnivals, an enormous amount of time and effort has been put into this one to ensure its success. I would like to thank Herb Swedosh and his Carnival Committee for their timeless endeavours in organising what will undoubtedly be a magnificent and unforgettable event.

The Carnival will bring together over six hundred young Jewish people, for ten exciting days of competition, giving them the chance to renew old acquaintances, and establish new friendships.

I wish all who participate in this Carnival good luck, and hope that everyone is left with only pleasant memories.
