13. All members of the Executive shall be elected at an Annual General Meeting, the period between such Annual General Meetings shall not be less than 12 months or more than 15 months.

14. The Accounts of the League shall be audited and certified by one Auditor appointed by the Annual General Meeting.

15. The President of the League and the Presidents of all constituent bodies within the League may call all meetings of and within the League of such bodies at their discretion, and the President of the League shall have a right of access to all meetings thereof.

16. Half of the members of the Council or of any Committee in the League shall constitute a Quorum.

17. Any member of the Council or of any Committee of the League missing four successive meetings thereof, as the case may be without adequate reason, forfeits his place on such Council or Committee.

18. The Council shall meet at least once in each two calendar months.

19. In all cases the power conferred on any body in accordance with the Constitution of the League or the Constitution of any Constituent body of the League, in the absence of any express direction to the contrary, may be exercised by a simple majority of the members of that body present at a duly convened and conducted meeting thereof, or casting their votes where provision is made thereat and without the necessity for the attendance at a meeting.

20. The disposal, by sale, lease, gift or otherwise, of land or buildings of the League or acquisition, leasing or otherwise of further land or buildings by the League, shall be subject to the decision of the majority of members at a Council Meeting and confirmed by 2/3rds majority of members present and voting at an Annual or Special Meeting of Members.

21. (a) At least two (2) weeks' written notice of an Annual General Meeting or any Special General Meeting of the League to be given to Members. A "Notice" inserted in the 'Maccabean' paper prior to the Meeting, providing the Paper is distributed at least (2) weeks before such Meeting, would be sufficient notice to all members.

21. (b) Any notice of motion to be presented to any Annual General Meeting or Special General Meeting of Members must be included in the Notice of Meeting.

22. This Constitution may be amended or added to by (a) the adoption of a resolution proposed by the Council by a majority of the members of the League voting thereon or (b) the adoption by a majority of the members of the League voting thereon of a resolution proposed by any Constituent body in the League.

23. Subject to the approval or veto of either the Council or the Members of the League, any constituent body may amend or add to its Constitution by the adoption of a resolution proposing the same by a majority of its members.

24. Every Constituent body shall submit a copy of its proposed constitution for approval by the Council.

25. In the event of the League being wound up, the property remaining to the League shall be transferred by way of gift to the Perth Hebrew Congregation, Inc.

26. The League shall have and use a Common Seal (with power to break, alter and change the same from time to time) on which shall be inscribed the name of the League.

The Common Seal shall be kept by the Secretary of the League. The Seal of the League shall not be affixed to any instrument except by the authority of a resolution of the Council and in the presence of the President and Secretary or such other person or persons as the Council may appoint for the purpose; and such President and Secretary or other person or persons as aforesaid shall sign every instrument to which the Seal of the League is so affixed in their presence.
