THE 15TH MACCABIAH

ISRAEL 14-24.7.1997

ISRAEL 14-24.7.1997 THE 15TH MACCABIAH

The Maccabiah

For the 15th time in 65 years, the Maccabiah Games, scheduled for July 1997, will be held in Israel. Thousands of Jewish athletes, and tens of thousands of visitors from all over the world will converge in Israel, together embodying the central message of Maccabi: that Israel is at the heart of Jewish life.

The 15th Maccabiah will usher in the celebrations of the 50th anniversary of the State, a year in which all the Jewish people hope and pray that a real, secure peace will be achieved. Participation in this jubilee celebration is a unique opportunity to enjoy a festive celebration of the Israel experience.

The first Maccabiah was held in 1932, when 390 outstanding athletes from 17 countries gathered in what-was-then Palestine. Apart from the tragic interruption of World War II, the event has been held with ever increasing participation.

The 15th Maccabiah, will be the largest yet. Some 6,000 athletes representing 50 countries will be competing in 43 different sports in selected locations throughout Israel.

The Maccabiah Games have come to represent the finest in Jewish sports. In these days of commercialization of sports, the Maccabiah has become one of the few major events in world-recognized competitions, where friendly competition, a striving for excellence, and achievement remain the motivations.

In addition to competitive events, there are cultural and social activities, excursions and numerous opportunities to experience the best Israel can offer.

For many participants and attendees, the Maccabiah represents their first and most important exposure to Israel and their Jewish roots.

Junior Maccabiah

An exciting part of the Maccabiah Games, the Junior Maccabiah, is geared to youngsters, 13 to 16 years. The Junior Maccabiah represents more than athletic achievements; it also represents the continuity of the Maccabi spirit in our next generation.

Masters Maccabiah

The Masters Maccabiah is for athletes, 35 years and above, who excel in sports and thrive on competition.

Opening Ceremony, July 14, 1997

The 15th Maccabiah Opening Ceremony, presided over by the President of Israel, will take place on July 14, 1997 at 20:00 hours at the Ramat-Gan National Stadium. This is one of the formal state ceremonies in which the public can participate. Numerous dignitaries will be in attendance, along with spectators, and 6,000 Maccabi athletes. This "Maccabi ingathering" under the Israeli flag, in the State of Israel is a moving expression of the loyalty, support, and love of the Jewish people for the Jewish State.

The Program will include:

- March of the Delegations ■ Lighting the Torch
- Official Opening of Games by the President of Israel
- Gymnastic Performance by Thousands of Maccabi Tzair Children ■ Artistic and Folklore Performance ■ Fireworks Display
- Entertainment ... and more

Closing Ceremony, July 24, 1997

Closing Ceremony will take place on July 24, 1997 in Jerusalem – the Capital of Israel and the symbol of the yearning and hopes of the Jewish people for thousands of years.

The Prime Minister of Israel will officially close the 15th Maccabiah Games, and announce the 16th Maccabiah Games, to be held in the next century.
